16. What Course material will be provided?

For each text we will mention the textbook required to be purchased. That will be sufficient.

17. How long will I have access to the Course?

One can access the recordings for the duration of the Course. After the Course is completed, access will be provided for one year.

18. How do I resolve any doubts regarding the subject matter?

Students are encouraged to reflect on their queries rather than raising them immediately at the end of the lecture. By self reflection or by the end of the text, queries will probably get resolved. However, if questions still persist, Swamiji will be giving time for one Q&A session per text for resolving any pending queries.

You would be required to send in your queries via a Google Form. Details will be made available at a later point during the Course.

19. Will a Certificate be provided at the end of the Course?

Yes, a Participation Certificate will be issued.
